APPEAL IS REFUSED TO MRS. VICTOR HALL

Supreme Court Declines to Intervene in Case of Woman Convicted of Murder.

MUST SERVE 10-YEAR SENTENCE

Thirty Opinions Are Handed Down, Fifteen Cases Being Affirmed and Fifteen Reversed—Petition of Eli Tartte May Be Dismissed.

Mrs. Victor Hall's appeal for a writ of error and supersedens was refused vesterday by the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia. The woman, who cas convicted of the murder of her their home in Louisa County, will have to serve a term of ten years in the State Penitentiary Mrs. Hall was convicted in the cuit Court of Louisa County August 3. The trial is a memorable one in the criminal annals of this State. Commonwealth's attorney Bibb was assisted in the prosecution by M. J. Fulton. of Richmond. Mrs. Hall is the mother of two young girls, both of whom were continually at her side during her ordeal in court. She is now out on ball but will be surrendered by her bondsmen and delivered at the penitentlary, probably within a few days. of Louisa County August FIFTEEN AFFIRMED AND FIFTEEN REVERSED

Yesterday was "opinion day" in the Supreme Court. Opinions were handed

Supreme Court. Opinions were handed down in thirty cases, lifteen of which were affirmed and fifteen reversed. Following is a list of the cases:

By James Keith, president—
Smith vs. Anderson et als. Circuit Court of Russell County. Affirmed.

Adams vs. Pugh's administrator. Circuit Court of Rockingham County. Affirmed. Carter vs. Hook. Circuit Court of Al-

Carter vs. Hook. Circuit Court of Alleghany County. Affirmed.
Spangler vs. Ashwell. Circuit Court of Bedford County. Affirmed.
Wells's administrator vs. Sutherland Coal and Coke Company. Circuit Court of Wise ounty. Affirmed.
Ratliff vs. Meadows et als. Circuit Court of city of Bristol. Affirmed.
Bowman vs. Holland et al. Circuit Court of Roanoke County. Reversed. Court of Roanoke County. Reversed.

Sourt of Roanoke County. Reversed.

By Judge R H. Cardwell—

Norfolk and Western Railway Company vs. city of Bristol. Corporation Court of city of Bristol. Affirmed.

Smiley vs. Commonwealth ex. rel., etc. Circuit Court of Augusta County.

Affirmed.

Affirmed.
Outnotes the state of the state of Western Union Telegraph Company s. First National Bank of Berryville t al. Circuit Court of Clarke County.

Commonwealth. Court of Craig County. Reversed.

Higgins vs. Southern Railway Com Circuit Court of Orange County.

Hartford Fire Insurance Company vi County. Reversed.

By Judge John A. Buchanan:
Hamman, et als. vs. Miller. Circuit Court of Shenandoah County. Judgment affirmed.

Clark vs. Nave's Creditors. Circuit Court of Rockingham County. Judgement affirmed. Mundy's Executors vs. Garland. Cir-

Ity Judge George M. Harrison:

ald. Circuit Court of Bath County.
Decree reversed.

Petitions for Rehearing.

These cases were argued yesterday:
Trower, Committee vs. Spady, et als.
Argued by C. V. Meredith for appellant and by Mr. Turlington and J. L. Jeffries for apelles, and submitted.
Face & Son vs. Cherry. Argued by Thomas W. Shelton for appellant and by Mr. Riddleberger for appellee, and submitted.

submitted.

Hartley vs. Neaves et als, Partly argued, and continued until to-day.

Next cases to be called: Tanner vs. Culpeper Construction Company; Wyntt, et al., vs. Gleason; Wood vs. J. W. Jeffries & Co.; Virginia Railway and Power Company vs. Godsey.

An order was issued by the court vesterday direction in displaced of the court vesterday direction in the court vesterday direction in yesterday directing a dismissal of the petition of Eli Tartte, formerly pastor of a colored congregation in Petersburg, unless matters of church record recently asked for in the case are pro-duced by Tartte by December 1. Tartte had trouble with his congregation three years ago, and was repudiated by one faction. An opposing faction, however, championed the old pastor's cause. The light for control of the church was carried into court, and the litigation has lasted three years.

WOULD ATTEND CONVENTION

Asks Council for Funds,

The Council Committee on Dock, River and Harbor last night recommended to the Council for passage a r solution appropriating $500 as Richmond's contribution to the fund of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress. It recommended also an appropriation of $500 to defray the expenses of a delegation from this city to attend the congress, which will be held this year in Washington on December 9, 10, 11 and 12. The delegation is to be composed of the Mayor and the present membership of the Dock, River and Harbor Committee.

teentry Recovers.

THE RAIN'S BEGINNING TO FALL

And It's Going to Be Very Good for the Crops.

WORK IS DISTRICTED

Reversed.

Morris & Co., Inc., vs. Commonwealth. Corporation Court of City of Ronnoke. Reversed.

Linkous, by etc., vs. Stevens et al. Institute to discuss matters pertaining to the future development of the control of the common to the com movement in this city. Among the ideas which will tend to promote more efficiency is the districting of the city with a commissioner to be responsible to headquarters for the work in his district.

The districts are as follows:
Circuit Court of Tazewell
Reversed.
Central District—Seventeenth Street, north and south, to Laurel, north and

ty. Reversed.

ty. Reversed.

adge John A. Buchanan:

mman, et als. vs. Miller.

to of Shenandoah County.

affirmed.

rk vs. Nave's Creditors. Circuit to of Rockingham County.

Judgeaffirmed.

ndy's Executors vs. Garland. CirCourt of Botetourt County.

Judgearry for Botetourt County.

JudgeCourt of Botetourt County.

JudgeCourt of Botetourt County.

JudgeWestern District—Laurel Street,
north and south, to the Boulevard,
north and south,
Northern District—Brook Hill, Bartland south.

Northern District—Brook Hill, Bartland south, to haurel, north and western District—Laurel Street,
north and south,
Northern District—Laurel Street,
north and south, to haurel, north and
western District—Laurel Street,
north and south,
Northern District—Laurel Street,
north and south,
Northern District—Brook Hill,
Northern District—South Richmond,
Woodland Heights and Forest Hill.
Westhampton District—From Boulevard to Westhampton.

Ity Judge George M. Harrison:

National Union Fire Insurance Company vs. Burkholder. Circuit Court of Shenandoah County, Judgment affirmed. Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Comporation Court of city of Staunton, Judgment reversed. Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company vs. Kidd. Circuit Court of Botetourt County. Judgment reversed.

In re Nicholas' Will. Circuit Court of Botetourt County. Judgment reversed.

In re Nicholas' Will. Circuit Court of Rockingham County. Order reversed. By Judge Stafford G. Whittle:

Curry vs. Landes, et al. Circuit Court of Augusta County. Decree affirmed.

Davis vs. Town of Harrisonburg. Circuits decision westerday for the transaction of business incident to the opening of the Lank next Monday. Only business of a strictly banking nature was taken in the county of the Lank next Monday. Only business of a strictly banking nature was taken in the county of the Lank next Monday. Only business of a strictly banking nature was taken in the location of business incident to the opening of the Lank next Monday. Only business of a strictly banking nature was taken in the location of business incident to the opening of the Lank next Monday. Only business of a strictly banking nature was taken in the location of business incident to the opening of the Lank next Monday. Only business of a strictly banking nature was taken in the lank next Monday. Only business of a strictly banking nature was taken in the lank next Monday. Only business of a strictly banking nature was taken in the lank next Monday. Only business of a strictly banking nature was taken in the lank next Monday. Only business of a strictly banking nature was taken in the lank next Monday. Only business of a strictly banking nature was taken in the lank next Monday. Only business of a strictly banking nature was taken in the lank next Monday. Only business of a strictly banking nature was taken in the lank next Monday. Only business of a strictly banking nature to the opening of the Lank next Monday. Only business of a strictly banking nat

Davis vs. Town of Harrisonburg. Circuit Court of Rockingham County, Judgment affirmed.

Citizens' National Bank vs. McDonald. Circuit Court of Rath County.

Labor Cases Postponed.

Decree reversed.

Petitious for Rehearing.
Gillespie, et als. vs. Davis, et als.
Circuit Court of Tazewell County. Rehearing refused.
Hounshell vs. Hounshell, et als. Circuit Court of Smyth County. Rehearing refused.
Collier, et als. vs. Seward & Roper.
Hustings Court city of Petersburg. Rehearing refused.

SEVERAL CASES WERE ARGUED VESTERDAY
These cases were argued yesterday:
Trower, Committee vs. Spady, et als.
Argued by C. V. Meredith for appellant
Argued by C. V. Meredith for appellant Pullaski several days ago, to have the lefendants appear in court yesterday agorning. Evidently they appeared. But in unexpected interruption occurred. Yesterday afternoon inspector Clinelinst telegraphed briefly, saying all of the cases had been postponed until November 18. The Labor Commissioner is expecting the details by letter totally.

LECTURE ON COAL

Work Almost Completed.

John T. Lewis, of the Virginia Commission to the Panama-Pacific Exposition, in a communication received here yesterday, states that the work of beautifying the Virginia building on the exposition grounds, is almost completed.

John T. Lewis, of the Virginia Commission to the Panama-Pacific Exposition, in a communication received here yesterday, states that the work of beautifying the Virginia building on the exposition grounds is almost completed.

John T. Lewis, of the Virginia Commission to the Panama-Pacific Exposition, in a communication received here yesterday, states that the work of beautifying the Virginia building on the exposition grounds is almost completed.

John T. Lewis, of the Virginia Commission to the Panama-Pacific Exposition, in a communication received here yesterday, states that the work of beautifying the Virginia building on the exposition grounds is almost completed.

John T. Lewis, of the Virginia Commission to the Panama-Pacific Exposition, in a communication received here yesterday, states that the work of beautifying the Virginia building on the exposition grounds. Is almost completed.

John T. Lewis, of the Virginia Commission to the Panama-Pacific Exposition, in a communication received here yesterday, states that the work of beautifying the Virginia building on the exposition grounds is almost completed.

Head of State Geological Survey to Speak on Fuel Resources.

Dr. Thomas L. Watson, head of the State Geological Survey, whose laboratories are at the University of Virginia, will deliver a lecture on the Toal Fields of Virginia," before the Richmond Society of Engineers on Thursday night. The meeting, which will be open to the public, will be held in the auditorium of the Virginia Mechanics Institute, beginning at 8:30 o'clock.

Charles Gentry, 1620 Hanover Avenue, who attempted suicide in Monroe Park Tuesday afternoon, and who was rushed to Virginia Hospital for treatment, was discharged from the hospital yesterday afternoon, little the worse for his experience. The man is said to have been burned but slightly by the crossott, with which he attempted to take his life.

Gentry is the son of Thomas W. Gentry, Southern representative of the American Locomotive Company. The young man would offer no explanation as to why he desired to end his life.

Schuman and S. J. Alien, all of this city, directors. Roanoke was decided upon for the next convention.

Appoints Church Trustees.

An order was entered yesteriay in the City Circuit Court appointing John L. Williams, Silus Shackelford and Edward Ellis, Jr., trustees of St. Phillips Trotestant Episcopal Church. The board of trustees was authorized by the court at borrow the sum of $1.-150 to be used in building a parsonage.

The money is to be secured by a mortage on the property of the church at $271-2 West Jackson Street.

GREENVILLE CASE ARGUED

The United States Circuit Court of Appeals reconvened yesterday morn-ing at 16 o'clock with Circuit Judges Pritchard, Knapp and Woods in at-Pritchard, Knapp and Woods in attendance.

The following case was argued:
No. 1276. Highland Park Manufacturing Company, appellant, vs. E. G. Steele, et al., appellees; appeal from the District Court at Greenville, S. C. Argued by C. E. Spencer and C. W. Tillett, Yorkville, S. C., for the appellant, and by J. A. Marion and D. E. Finley, Yorkville, S. C., and E. M. Blythe, Greenville, S. C., and E. M. Blythe, Greenville, S. C., for the appellees.

Case in call:
No. 1281. J. W. Brigman, appellant, vs. Leake S. Covington, trustee, et al., appellees; appeal from the District Court at Raleigh, N. C. In bankruptcy. To be argued by H. F. Seawell, Carthage, N. C., for the appellees.

Admitted to practice,—C. E. Spencer, Yorkville, S. C., and J. A. Marion, Yorkville, S. C., are admitted to practice as attorneys and counsellors of this court.

Sale Case Continued.

Sale Case Continued.

The case against J. O. Sale, Jr., charged with giving W. E. Higgins a check for $22 knowing there were no funds in the bank to cover it, was yesterday continued until November 18 by Justice Griggs, in Police Court. Sale is representative of the Cambria Steele Company with offices on the twelfth floor of the Mutual Building, while Higgins has an office in the First National Bank Building.

Prohibition League Issues Paper.
Latest among the publications to enter the local field is the Voice of the Woman's Prohibition League of America. The November issue of the attractive monthly is sixteen pages, eight by twelve inches, printed on the best white paper. The front cover shows the home of the league,
Mrs. J. L. Wiltshire is editor of the paper; Mrs. G. Harvey Clarke is associate editor, and Miss Jennie Bates is business manager. The paper is issued from the league headquarters, 115 North Fifth Street. The first number contains several signed contributions, both prose and poetry.

Charter Issued.

A charter was issued yesterday by the State Corporation Commission to the Tidewater Chemical Company, of Richmond. The concern is authorized to conduct, a manufacturing business. The capital stock is from $5.000 to $5.0,000 and the officers are: H. A. Grant, president; Edward Tayloe, of Comorn, vice-president, and R. E. Barber, secretary and treasurer, Richmond.

Speeding in Barton Heights.

William Hilton, the negro arrested by Motor Cycle Policeman Samuels is charged with speeding his motor cycle through Barton Heights was, yesterday fined $25 and costs when arraigned before Justice Griggs in the Police Court.

IN BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

chanies Institute, beginning at $130 o'clock.

This lecture will be the first of a series on topics of interest to the general public. While the lectures deal with technical problems, the questions will be discussed in such a way as to be of popular interest.

Dr. Watson will illustrate his lecture with screen pictures taken in the coal fields of the State. He has traveled extensively through these sections in connection with his work, and his lecture will show the source of supply of fuel, the various methods of mining and kindred subjects.

Governor Stuart Mayor Ainslic, members of the Mines and Minerals Committee of the General Assembly, and all city officials and coal operators have received special invitations to be tresent. From the number of replies, it is expected that the auditorium will be crowded. Other lectures will be given through the winter months.

Buttlers Elect Officers. Bruce Morson, Brother of Mrs. Wynd-ham R. Meredith, Was Born in "White House of Confederacy." Announcement has been received here of the death in Birmingham, Ala., of Bruce Morson. Mr. Morson had been a resident of Alabama for nearly a it is expected that the auditorium will be crowded. Other lectures will be given through the winter months.

Bottlers Elect Officers.

Members of the Virginia Bottlers frotective Association elected officers restered as at the second session of the Like' Home. Eleventh and Marshall Streets. The new officers are: A. F. Cathey, Norfolk, president: C. W. Poland, Richmond, vice-president: H. A. Renz, Washington, sceretary and treasurer, and L. M. Palmer, L.: J. Schuman and S. J. Allen, all of this city, directors. Roanoke was decided upon for the next convention.

Appoints Church Trustee. two sisters, Mrs. Leigh Robinson, of Washington, and Mrs. Wyndham R. Meredith, of this city.

Coke Vendor Gets One Vear,

Ida Covington indicted by the grand jury on the charge of retailing cocaine, was found guilty in the Huxing's Court yesterday, and sontenced hydudge Richardson to serve one year in the penitentiary.

Fitzhugh Guy was found guilty of malicious wanuding, and sentenced to serve two years in the penitentiary.

STUDY OF PELLAGRA

States Court Will Hear Bank-ruptcy Appeal To-Day. Papers Are Rend Before Special Sec-tion, With Account of Cases.

ball's up there.

found in strong tobacco.

"The Thinkers of the Country Are the Tobacco Chewers" Also in economical freshness-preserving drums of 11 twists for 50c.

OFFICERS OF C COMPANY SEND IN RESIGNATIONS

Captain Coulbourne and Lieutenant Coulbourne Retire From Militia Service.

OFFICERS ASSIGNED

ficers had severed their connection with the company was made last night following the weekly drill.

Captain Coulbourne and Lieutenant Coulbourne are both graduates of the Virginia Military Institute. The former enlisted in Company F, Richmond Gray's Battalion, in the spring of 1911, and was elected to the second lieutenancy of the company that summer, and two months later was elected to head Company C. Lieutenant Coulbourne became connected with the company two years ago. Both are well liked, and have made efficient officers. Major Lawrence T. Price, command, ant of the battalion has ordered Second Lieutenant James R. Sheppard, Jr., to take charge of the company pending an election, and has ordered Lieutenant W. A. Loving, Jr., battalion quartermaster, to assist in the work. An active recruiting campaign has recently been inaugurated for the purpose of bringing the company up to the minimum of fifty-eight enilsted men, as required by the War Depart. men, as required by the War Depart-STAFF OFFICERS ASSIGNED

Colonel William B. Perry, command-er of the First Regiment, has issued orders directing Captain D. L. Porter and Captain William E. Tribbett, both members of his staff, to report to Major Price for duty. These officers have recently received appointments in in-ternal revenue service, and are now located here. It is the intention of Colonel Perry to have his staff officers learn the duties of the line, in order

Colonel Perry to have his staff officers learn the duties of the line, in order to have men capable of assuming charge of companies should the commanding officer be incapacitated in time of actual service. This rule is being adopted throughout the organized militia.

Major Price will assign Captain Porter for duty with Company F, and Captain Tribbett with Company A. First Lieutenant Leroy E. Brown, Jr., battallon adjutant, will be assigned to While not generally recognized as pellagra until 1907, many deaths have resulted from the disease in various sections of the country, according to Y.A. Little, assistant physician at the Georgia State Sanitarium, of Milledge-ville, Ga. At the meeting of the Southern Medical Association yesterday in the symposium on Pellagra, Dr. Little rad an interesting report on the dieteit treatment of pellagra with a history of eleven cases.

First Lleutenant Leroy E. Brown, Jr., battalion adjutant, will be assigned to Company G. This will make each company have the services of a staff of iter in addition to its regular officers. Orders were issued last night by Major Price for a full-dress battalion drill, to be held on the night of December 2. Invitations are being engraved, and will be issued to about cember 2. Invitations are being en-graved, and will be issued to about

"We can't afford to get up in the air except when the

"That's why we use PICNIC TWIST instead of a dark, heavy tobacco. PICNIC TWIST is mild and it's better

TOBACCO

Liggett & Myers Tobacco Ca

than water for keeping you from getting dry."

Men everywhere are finding that there's all the tobacco satisfaction in a mild, sweet,

500 guests. A dance will follow the drill.

The Signal Corps has received orders to prepare for an exhibition drill on the night of the battalion drill. The new company will give a demonstration of its work, heluding the setting up and operation of two field wireless outsits. It will also give an exhibition of flag and other signaling.

MEETINGS FOR MEN .

T. C. Diggs to Speak at Noon-Day Prayer Service.

Will See Actual Service With Individual Companies—Full-Dress Battalion Drill to Be Held on December 2—Dance to Follow.

Resignations have been forwarded to Adjutant-General W. W. Sale by Captain Charles B. Coulbourne and First Lieutenant 'D. Langhorne Coulbourne, both of Company C, Richmond Gray's Battalion, First Infantry. Business reasons are given for both resignations, which are effective on November 15. The announcement that both officers had severed their connection sing the company up to a $300.

Henry S. Wallerstein, to repair brick store at 1322-24 East Main Street, to cost $300.

W. H. Watkins, to repair frame store and dwelling at 1201-3 West Leigh Street, to cost $2,000.

Reunion of Spanish War Veterans.
Fitzhugh Lee Camp, Spanish War Veterans, will have a mass-meeting and buffet luncheon in the Richmond Gray's Armory on Saturday night. Invitations have been issued to all Spanish War veterans in the city, whether members of the camp or not. Visiting comrades, or those who have not received invitations, should apply to George C. Fitzhugh, cahirman of the committee, at his office in the American National Bank Building.

Luncheon to Ministers.

A luncheon will be tendered by the board of the Young Women's Christian Association to-day at 1 o'clock, to all ministers in the city to meet Miss Helen A. Davis, of New York, executive secretary of the field department, National Young Women's Christian Association.

Veale Promoted.

Frank R. Veale assumed his duties here yesterday as assistant superintendent of the first district of the Western Union Telegraph Company. Mr. Veale was chief operator in the local office for two years, but was more recently chief of the Southern or the service, with headquarters in Atlanta. He is a native of Hampton, where he learned telegraphy, and first became an employe of the company.

"The Thinkers of the Country Are the said one of the greatest thinkers

this country ever produced.

There wouldn't be many double plays pulled off, if we players didn't think pretty straight and quick and right.

We need snap judgment but it's got to be good judgment

Says the Ball Player:

Tobacco Chewers"-

Smoking Jackets

think of him but himself, and the man who has somebody thinking about his Christmas, will both enjoy the possession of a Smoking Jacket.

It's mighty comfortable to come home at night and slip into a coat that you're not afraid to wrinkle.

Fine choosing here now for a man for himself-fine choos-J. M. Delaney, to build a detached two-story brick dwelling at 1915 ing, too, for somebody thinking Grove Avenue, to cost $7,200. for him. Sent via parcels post Double faced Golf Cloth. Cuffs and lapels to match. Silk Velvet Coats. Corded edge and silk frogs, etc., etc. $5, $6.50, $7.50 to $10.00.

At the Store That Pleases

Cole's Hot Blast Heaters, Piedmont, Royal and Alert Self Feeders

Heaters

WOOD, GAS AND OIL

Jones Bros. & Co. Incorporated

Wood's Poultry Foods and Supplies.

Poultry raising promises to be one of the best money crops for farmers every-

Our celebrated Hollybrook Poultry Foods essential to the successful poultry raiser. We grind, mix and sack all our Hollybrook Poultry Foods and know them to contain only pure whole-some grains. Write for prices. "Wood's Poultry Special" giving seasonable hints and timely information about foods and feeding, mailed free on request. T. W. WOOD & SONS.

Seedsmen, - Richmond, Va.

Take Lur.ch---

"Luncheonettes"

The daintiest, most appetizing dishes-served at tables or at our soda-fount -the quickest and best way is a Shepherd "Luncheonette."

